Dear Mr. Johnson:

Admiral Turner has asked me to thank you for your letter of March 9th. Enclosed are the photographs and biographies you requested. The title of the DCI's speech will be, "New Directions in Intelligence." In his speech the Admiral normally discusses the five changes that have occurred in intelligence over the last few years under the subheadings of product, production line, people, oversight and openness. Following a brief discussion of each he will answer questions.

We will have no transportation requirements and will get to Sacramento and the Sacramento Inn by our own means.

You should know that the Admiral will be speaking at a Chamber of Commerce luncheon in San Diego on 9 August and before a Town Hall meeting in Orange County on 10 August. I hope this will not affect your attendance. However, we make it a practice to speak as many times as possible on a trip of this sort.

He will not have any press interviews on the morning of 11 August. The Admiral would be happy to meet with members of the press immediately following his talk and you and I can work out those details by phone. In the meantime, if you have any questions concerning press arrangements or the Admiral's speech, let me know.

Sincerely,

Herbert E. Hetu
Assistant for Public Affairs
to the Director of Central Intelligence
